Foundry Youth Ministry Volunteer
Role & Responsibilities

Sunday Morning Youth Leader
Leading a youth Sunday School class is fun, rewarding and just might change your life. This leadership opportunity offers the freedom of being creative in lesson plans, encouraging the practice of drawing upon one's resources and experiences.
Weekly Commitment: 2 hours curriculum overview & prep (curriculum provided)
Fall 2013: 7 Sundays

- Comply with Foundry Safe Sanctuary Policies
- Be on-time and ready to engage each time you lead
- Meet with the staff and other volunteers for encouragement, troubleshooting, curriculum review, training and prayer.
- Help to coordinate the teaching schedule with other teachers and teaching assistants to provide maximum consistency.
- Be active in the life of the Foundry community through regular worship and service
- Participate in youth ministry special events as time allows.
- Seek to be informed about any special victories, concerns or challenges being faced by the youth and his or her family and, as often as reasonable, pass that information on to the pastoral team
- Have fun!

Chaperones
If you are interested in working with you, but your schedule does not allow you to have an ongoing commitment, consider making a one-time full commitment to the youth for lock-ins, retreats and mission trips. Taking part in these fellowship and mission opportunities will change your life. Not only will you build relationships with the youth, but you will be inspired through worship, sharing and God talk.
Commitment: Varies by activity
Fall 2013: Sr High lock-in, Jr. High Lock-in, Ski Trip (Dates TBD)

- Comply with Foundry Safe Sanctuary Policies
- Be active in the life of the Foundry community through regular worship and service
- Take on leadership responsibilities during the activity which range from coordinating food and overseeing logistics to loading supplies and driving youth
- Participate in youth ministry special events as time allows
- Have fun!

Youth Ministry Support Team
If you are interested in supporting the youth ministry on an ongoing basis, but in ways other than teaching and chaperoning, please consider becoming part of the Youth Ministry Support Team. Becoming a part of this team will allow you to make your gifts available to the Youth Ministry on an "as needed" basis. Perhaps you have skills as an artist and are willing when called upon to lead a painting workshop for the youth. Or perhaps you are an accountant, willing to conduct a seminar for the young on managing resources, budgeting and basic finance. If interested, please contact Pastor Theresa Thames (tthames@foundryumc.org) with your name, contact information and gift/skill, time frame of interest and availability.
